

2010

beautiful north

Back Country Travel Schedule

Canoeing through the vast and dazzling network of lakes and waterways in Ontario and Quebec, is an unforgettable experience. Beautiful North takes care of all the details so that you can enjoy the many pleasures of wilderness travel: paddling and portaging, eating dinner as you watch the sunset, swimming in rapids, photographing wildlife, painting the landscape or just watching the weather roll by. From your morning cup of fair-trade coffee or herbal tea, to wine with dinner we offer a high quality menu that is creative, healthy and abundant.

Chiniguichi to Sturgeon River (June 26-July 3, seven nights)

Starting in the beautiful Chiniguichi Waterway Park, this trip combines big lakes and river travel on the lower Sturgeon. Featuring great swimming and hiking, old growth red pine forest, and isolated backcountry for those with some experience of white water and appreciation for portaging.

Price: $1,200

French River (July 18-24, six nights)

This trip down one of Canada's most historic rivers showcases the unforgettable vistas of Georgian Bay. Rocky islands and shorelines, wind blown white pines, and dramatic sunsets, all combine to make this one of Ontario's most distinctive canoeing destinations.

Price: $1,050

Booth Lake in Algonquin (August 1-6, five nights)

With rock outcrops and sandy beaches, Booth Lake is classic Algonquin Park. Watercolourist Martha Bull will provide instruction to painters of all skill levels in the art of seeing and reproducing landscapes made famous by the Group of Seven. Short paddling days and few portages will leave plenty of time for swimming, painting, exploring or just relaxing.

Price: $900 *Includes watercolour instruction.

North Killarney (Aug 15-21, six nights)

The recent creation of Killarney Lakelands and Headwaters Provincial Park offers new opportunities to explore the more isolated north west section of the park. This trip features the distinctive beauty and ruggedness of the Killarney region, and the striking colour and clarity of the lakes in some of the less travelled regions of this popular park.

Price: $900

Fall Painting Massasauga (Sept 23-26, 4 nights)

September is a wonderful time for canoe travel and Massasauga Provincial Park is the perfect place to enjoy the changing seasons. Watercolourist Martha Bull will be on hand to help painters of all skill levels capture the colour and diversity of the landscape. Less than three hours from Southern Ontario, Massasauga offers the distinctive beauty of the lakes and forests that border the east coast of Georgian Bay.

Price: $700 *Includes watercolour instruction.

Debbie Field and David Kraft (on the left) combine their love of the wilderness with many years' experience as animators and public educators. They guide trips that are relaxed and fun, accessible to anyone who enjoys moderate exercise. Whether you are 8 or 80 a Beautiful North trip promises unforgettable days filled with adventure and variety.

beautiful north
 beautiful north

For details of 2010 schedule or to plan a customized trip contact:
David Kraft and Debbie Field at 416 537-6856
 or visit www.beautifulnorth.ca

Trip prices include all fees, equipment, meals.

Thanks to Martha Bull, David Smith, Deborah Barndt, Ross Peacock, Tricia Willis for pictures.